Re Madrid letter 8-9-62.

An article appearing in "Arriba," Spanish daily newspaper, Madrid, dated 8-11-62, carried an article to the effect that the two principal rebel groups in Angola had met for the purpose of organizing a common front against Portugal. The meeting allegedly broke up on 8-10-62 without any agreement being reached. HOLDEN ROBERTO, leader of the Angolan Popular Union, reportedly left Leopoldville on 8-10-62 for Europe for medical treatment.

The meeting between the Angolan Popular Union and the Movement for the Liberation of Angola was held under the direction of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The meeting allegedly was broken up when representatives of the Angolan Popular Union accused the Movement for the Liberation of Angola of killing guerrilla fighters of the Angolan Popular Union so that the Movement for the Liberation of Angola would be the only rebel group.
